How, then, was He manifested to the world? A star shone forth in heaven above all the other stars. The light from this star was inexpressible, and its uniqueness struck men with astonishment.

Ignatius (c. 105, E), 1.57

Who is the first person mentioned by the Holy Bible as being successful? What was the cause of the success?

The first person the Holy Bible says was successful is Joseph the Righteous and the reason is that God was with him (Genesis 39:2).
