St. Augustine was once asked by someone, he wished to be martyred but how could he given that the era of martyrdom had passed? St Augustine said to him, if your heart has the same desire as the martyr then you are counted as a martyr. Having the desire of the martyr means you have no desire or care for this world. Notice that the church also use to encourage the believers by telling them the same thing and not to have a care for this world. When ever they attended church it would tell them "Do not love the world or the things in the world... the world is passing away, and all the lust of it, but he who does the will of God abides forever" 1 Jn 2:15,17. A continually repeated lesson for the believers.
